

Whatever happened to guilty until proven innocent. Oh, wait, that's what this IS. Never mind, guilty as suspected.

The thought that I am living in my own Gestapo state surely warms the hearts and souls of all those that fought against Oppression in WWII. Only now, the police state is so strong, no single, or likely combination of alliances could stand against it. Now, how can I join the politbureau? Better to be a watcher than one that is watched. Since there is NO ONE watching the watchers, and the laws or so lax, I expect even this RFC will get me marked as a troublemaker. Quick, better start monitoring my emails.

HEY! Does this mean you'll filter out the junk I REALLY don't want?

Seems reasonable. So now, when I start getting SPAM, I know exactly who to litigate against. Keep up the good work. Everyone needs their freedoms restricted.
